About MSVSS

Maharaja Sayajirao Vishwavidhyalaya Shaikshak Sangh (MSVSS) is a subsidiary association of Akhil Bharatiya Rashtriya Shikshak Mahasangh (ABRSM). MSVSS started its activities for the welfare of teachers at all level of education, from primary to tertiary level from the year 2004. The aim behind these activities is to safeguard the interests of the teachers, to build an environment conducive for growth of a holistic educational culture in Baroda. The year 2006 proved to be a landmark as MSVSS formally came into existence. MSVSS has been frequently organizing programmes regarding the awareness of the teachers, students and the society at large.

About the Seminar

Higher Education faces lot of challenges from various dimensions like finance, curricular, administrative, evaluation, human resources that requires reforms at academic, administrative and examination dimensions. The time has come for the universities of India to think of an action-plan for reforming academic practices both at PG and at UG levels to move towards accomplishing world – class standard in the field of higher education. In the present era there is a great demand of integration of Information and Communication Technology as well as thorough researches cutting across various dimensions including examinations and assessment. This seminar attempts to dig up the crux of ideas and thoughts implemented in the real field of higher education.
